FROM THE EDITOR

It is with real sadness that we report the sudden, tragic death of Derek Sheldrake - a long-term stalwart of the Men's Get Together group, a strong supporter of the Centre and "one of nature's gentlemen". Our sincere sympathy and concerned thoughts go to Margaret and the family.

In last month's Newsletter I drew attention to the Milton Heritage Society and the pictures displayed in the foyer. All overtaken by events, folks, because the pictures were removed for the BeInvolved Open Week and, at its end September meeting, our Publicity Team decided that the long wall would be used to better advantage by displaying photographs of in-house activities rather than the MHS pictures which were felt to be of little real interest to members. However, anyone who IS interested in local history and how this area has developed over the years will be pleased to learn that the Society has become an affiliated organisation and so, from time to time, information on its activities/talks, etc. will be published in the Newsletter and posters displayed in the foyer.

This is what you might call our "Remembrance Month" when thoughts are turned, for a few hours at least, to those lost in the various conflicts - and who took part and had their lives irretrievably damaged, either mentally or physically, in the process. Do please try to attend the short ceremony at our War Memorial on Sunday, 12th November, and buy your poppies. Last year the local branch of the British Legion raised £22,000 and it is hoped to top that figure with this year's Appeal which is being sponsored by Bradbeers.

Phyllis Inglis

CHAIRMAN'S CHAT

First of all, a big "thank you" to all who worked so hard and helped with the BeInvolved event. Not the crowds of visitors we hoped for but we did attract a number of new members as well as a volunteer for Reception. It also enabled the Community Centre to raise its profile in the town to encourage people to come and see what we are all about. To this end we are developing ideas for a much higher public face to promote the great facilities we have to offer to both members, hirers and affiliates. The entrance lobby now has new notice boards which will carry details of our sections and activities, and a new brochure is close to publication which fulfils the same purpose. Work is in hand on an internal programme to brief all members on our proposals for a campaign to spread our message across New Milton. There may be members who are interested in developing this and a promotional campaign for 2018; if so, please come and see me. We will need all members to help in defining what our message should be. There are many things we all appreciate which the Centre provides for us such as socialising, recreation and learning. Other benefits include great facilities, friendship, fellowship, social environment, companionship, welfare, great value for money, large range of activities, concerts, generous opening hours, and volunteering to give members challenges, avoiding loneliness and providing job satisfaction. In order to prioritise these and any other ideas members might wish to add, a short questionnaire will be distributed at membership renewal.

Website: <http://www.newmiltoncommunity.org.uk>

Email: info@newmiltoncommunity.org.uk

Please take the time to complete it so that we can finalise the definition of the image for the Centre to publicise around the town in different media, including electronic which would attract the attention of young people.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to communicate with our various groups and affiliated organisations. Phone calls made when people are not at home often require numerous follow-up calls; messages left are sometimes not acknowledged and various volunteers who need to keep in contact with groups to find out what is happening are spending hours on the phone or bringing letters into the Centre. Replies can sometimes take as much as 14 days. The cost of postage and phone calls is increasing daily, making these means of communication a drain on our financial resources. We appreciate that a few group secretaries and group leaders do not yet have an email address but there will be at least one person in each group who is able to take on simple electronic communications on behalf of fellow members. We are, therefore, asking that all groups and affiliates provide an email contact address which the Association can use. Notices of events, changes in procedures, advance room bookings, information about activities, closure dates, special event information, and instructions for equipment are all examples of things which need to be passed on to groups. Similarly, the volunteers who run the Centre will be able to receive information and requests from groups and affiliates by email so that they, too, are not tied to a telephone and can deal with matters raised at a time convenient to them. This will lead to clearer lines of communication and a means of recording decisions made, which will improve future planning.

Please will all leaders and secretaries of groups, affiliates and regular room hirers provide email contact details to records@newmiltoncommunity.org.uk urgently, so as not to miss out on important announcements. Your cooperation will be much appreciated.

Michael Minton

FROM THE MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY

As November is now with us it is time for me to prepare for membership renewal, which starts on 1st December. This enables you to renew before the holiday season is upon us. For the procedure to run smoothly extra volunteers will be needed so please consider offering to help, either on the renewal desk or in the office in preparation for it.

Nigel King

FROM THE WEBMASTER

The current Newsletter can be viewed or downloaded on the home page of the website. Just click on the small image of the Newsletter. Previous issues are collected on the Newsletter page. Thanks for the new photographs which are now on the Italian and Social Sequence Dancing pages. If any other groups have some new photos, please let me have them. I would welcome photos from the creative groups similar to those provided by the Beading activity. If you are in the Art, Craft or Photography sections please take a snap of your work and send to me. An image of your work in progress would also be welcome.

COMMON ROOM

A recent review of building security highlighted the very real possibility of unauthorised entry when the Common Room emergency exit doors are left open and unattended. Requests to room users to ensure that the doors are secured once a session has finished have largely been ignored. Consequently, a door alarm has now been installed. If you wish to open a door (perhaps for loading or ventilation) you must ask at Reception for the alarm to be turned off. Be aware that the system automatically resets once the door is closed, so opening it again will cause the alarm to go off. Please only keep the door open for as long as necessary and avoid frequent opening/closing.

PUBLICITY TEAM REPORT

The strength of this team has been depleted recently and we are urgently looking for new faces to join us. If you feel you might have time and enthusiasm to offer, please ring me to have a talk. We need people willing to distribute our publicity material in the town as well as help produce it.

Our thanks go to all who helped with our Centre's contribution to the BeInvolved Week.

We are now considering what we can do to publicise ourselves at the town Festival on Saturday, 25th November, hoping to have our gazebo on Station Road again linked to an Open Day at the Centre itself. Staffing both of these proved very hard last year and, as we have existing contracts with outside hirers to consider on that day as well, we are simply asking our sections, activities and affiliates to each man a small static display in the Common Room/Lounge during the day. I shall be circularising all group leaders on this. Please respond to me a.s.a.p. so that I can allocate a space to your group. As usual, I will also need a rota of helpers inside and outside, so could any willing individuals please get in touch with me directly.

VALUED VOLUNTEERS

In recent weeks we have lost two of our most loyal and willing volunteers, so it is appropriate that we record our indebtedness to them both. John Chambers was a vital member of the Reception team over at least ten years, often being prepared to do additional duties when needed. He was also an active member of our Bowls section committee, helping to organise their highly successful skittles days as well as sessions outdoors at Milford and the New Milton Indoor Bowling Club. For several years Derek Sheldrake gave me practical support and advice in running our Open Days - more recently helping in the BeInvolved event, using his skills in Richard Ferguson's maintenance team. He was also, of course, the highly efficient Secretary of the Men's Get Together group. They both served this Centre very well as "givers" rather than just members and will be hard to replace.

POLICE SURGERY

10.30 a.m. Wednesday, 29th November, for about an hour at the Town Hall. Local officers will be pleased to see you.

TAI CHI & CHI KUNG

After running a "taster" session recently, I am starting to teach a new weekly class on Tuesday, 7th November, 2-3 p.m. If it becomes necessary I will offer a second session 3.15-4.15 p.m. Cost of the class is presently flexible, depending on participants, but it will be in the region of £4-£7 per session. For further information please contact me, Martin Common on 07973 639348 or visit improve-your-balance.co.uk.

FILM SHOW

2 for 2.30 p.m. Sunday, 12th November, "Viceroy's House" starring Hugh Bonnerville, Michael Gambon, Gillian Anderson. Lord Mountbatten oversees India's independence. £2.50 including tea/coffee. Please use side entrance.

News From Our Sections & Activities

BOWLS

Contact: Janet Keats, 614996

Further to last month's Newsletter regarding the loss of John Chambers, it should be known that he gave endless time to this section over ten years. There never seemed to be a session without his presence, and so he will be sadly missed.

Our thanks to John's daughter Barbara and granddaughter Melanie for arranging the evening at the Rising Sun. Barbara said it was a request from John to buy his bowling colleagues a drink. Despite the short notice, 32 members turned up to remember John, confirming the respect that we bowlers had for him. Now, is there someone to emulate him as, without doubt, the best bowler in the section?

There will be a memorial service for John at Golders Green Crematorium, 62 Hoop Lane, London NW11 7NL, at 11 a.m. on 7th November - open to all who wish to attend.

We have our Skittles Event at Hoburne Bashley, 11 a.m. Friday, 17th November. Tickets are now on sale from Alan Keats, Jim Fearon, John Donelan and Mike Dean. Cost per person is £15 to include a two-course Christmas Lunch and skittles. Closing date for ticket sales is 3rd November. There will be a raffle on the day so donations will be very welcome. Please give anything you may have to any member of the Bowls committee.

We play indoor bowls Monday through Friday here at the Community Centre. New members are always welcome to come along and join us.

BRIDGE

Contact: Christopher Fradd, 614605

All the bridge sessions have continued at their usual times, that is to say Chicago on Mondays, cut-in on Tuesdays and Fridays, both duplicate and rubber on Wednesdays, and training sessions on Thursdays. The only change in the offing in the near future is that the Social Bridge, hitherto held in the evening of the third Saturday of the month, is likely to be switched to the afternoon. More news on this in a future issue.

At the time of submitting this article a committee meeting is pending. No doubt there will be further news in the light of the committee's deliberations.

Sadly, I have to record the death of Allan Johnstone, a long-standing player of duplicate bridge but who had been in poor health for some time. We send our condolences to his family.

On a happier note, please keep free the afternoon of Saturday, 16th December, when we hold our section Christmas Party.

COME DANCING

Contact: June Curran, 619772

At the time of writing the Halloween Dance has yet to take place, so I hope that all who attended will have had a really enjoyable, spooky evening!

Tickets for the section-members-only Christmas Supper Dance, on 5th December, will be on sale from Tuesday, 7th November, at the extremely reasonable cost of £13.50. Following the success of last year's event, we are expecting a high demand for tickets so get them early - first come first served!

Another very popular event to look forward to is the Christmas Party Dance with live music provided by the very accomplished Larry Green.

Tickets will be available towards the end of this month. Details on the notice board nearer the date.

Saturday dances for November will be held on 11th and 25th - open to all sections, and visitors always very welcome.

DISCUSSION GROUP

Contacts: Bob Dowling, 838523; Colin Bower, 613254

At 2 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month our small, friendly group of men and women meet in the Community Centre to discuss topics in the news. At last month's meeting, as well as North Korea and US gun laws, we discussed BBC presenters and entertainers; tax-paper-funded salaries, the crackdown on gender stereotyping in advertising, steps that could be taken to prevent illegal voting, and Britain's foreign aid budget. Topics for our meeting on 14th November:-

1. Should foster carers be granted the same workers' rights as employed people?
2. Will the ban on all petrol and diesel engines from our roads from 2040 work? What are the positive and negative implications and do the disadvantages of electric cars outweigh the advantages?
3. Should MPs accept or be allowed to accept "freebies" regardless of whether or not they are registered in the "register of interests"?
4. Is it ever ethical to kill animals or birds for sport?

Our visit to Kingfishers Care Home in Barton-on-Sea went very well; an appreciative audience and tea and cakes afterwards! By the time you read this we will also have performed at Danestream Court in Milford, which promises to be a good evening.

Tickets for our Christmas Variety Concerts, 2-4 p.m. Saturdays 9th and 16th December, are now on sale at the Community Centre.

POETRY

Contact: Shirley Burke, 628992
It was a smaller group than usual last month which met to read or listen to poetry on the chosen topic which was mist, misty trees or just plain trees, resulting in a good selection of different verse to enjoy. We read for pleasure and not to make a deep study of each piece, so our hour passes quickly and happily.

At the meeting on Thursday, 16th November, topics will be chosen for 2018. Please note there is no meeting in December.

DANCING

Contact: Dee, 627922

September and October have been very strange months as numbers have continually fluctuated. However, many of our regular dancers have joined us each week and enjoyed a couple of hours of gentle exercise. Sadly, we have had to wave goodbye to Maurice, one of our very dedicated music presenters, who has supported the group since its inception in March, 2012, providing music on a very regular basis. We are sorry to lose him but understand he has moved out of this area to be closer to his family. We wish him all the best and hope he settles quickly into his new home.

Remember that our Christmas Party afternoon will be Thursday, 14th December, taking the theme of an American Supper. Please bring a small plate of food. We shall need a small team to man the kitchen so that teas and coffees can be served. Volunteers please!

After a very large photo of our class in action appearing in the local paper I had expected more people to “take the plunge” and try something new! Exercise is a vital part of LIVING! Why not try a class and reap the benefits? With regular attendance you will be more flexible, have better co-ordination, build up muscle strength and be mentally more alert. You might even enjoy yourself! Helping Older People, New Forest

At its AGM last month it was reported that the past year had been successful, with the operation running smoothly, sales increasing, funds at an improved level and more people coming through the door asking for help.

Whilst many readers will know of this charity shop on Station Road (next to Subway), it may not be appreciated that it offers a confidential, impartial and independent information and practical advice service, covering such things as letter-writing, form-filling, reading and helping with correspondence - any general problems which might be causing concern. Importantly, if you can't get to the shop a phone call is all it takes to arrange a home visit. Call 01425 629009 or email enquiries@hopenewforest.org.

A new Befriending scheme is now in place where accredited volunteers will be pleased to visit anyone in the area who feels isolated or a bit lonely' a weekly friendly chat over a cuppa can help brighten someone's day. If you would like a visit or know someone who might appreciate one, contact Steve Anderton on 01425 541241 or email befrienders@hopenewforest.org. He would also be very pleased to welcome anyone who would like to volunteer help as a Befriender.

MILTON HERITAGE SOC.

In late September the Society held its inaugural AGM at the Memorial Centre, attended by 70+ supporters, who were told of the following plans:-

- * To arrange a series of lectures/talks and free coach trips to visit archives.
- * To set up small teams to do in-depth research of the four areas of our parish.
- * To carry out interviews with residents and record their recollections of how the area and their lives have changed over the years.

The meeting concluded with a most enlightening presentation by Nick, covering the development of New Milton, Barton, Ashley and Bashley - all mentioned in the Doomsday Book and earlier.

Last month's talk at the Memorial Centre was given by Stephen Petty, former head of history at Durlston Court School; a fascinating presentation on the life of General Sir Henry Clinton who lived at the Ashley Clinton estate on the outskirts of our parish. Referring to his military career, the amount of money spent by his father on purchasing Army commissions was phenomenal. In addition, we learned other aspects of our local history such as the tower of St. Mary Magdalene Church, built in Tudor times as evidenced by stone mason marks and the dates of the bells.

At 7 p.m. on Friday, 24th November, a presentation will be given at the Memorial Centre by Tony Davies, Director of Smith Bradbeer & Co. Ltd. He will tell the history of the store from 1837 including our local store and its future.

Membership of the Society is £12 p.a. Monthly talks are free to members, £5 to visitors. If you would like to join please contact Membership Secretary Steve West - secretary@miltonheritagesociety.co.uk Enquiries about the activities of the Society itself should be addressed to Nick.

At its branch meeting in late September speaker Nick Saunders of the Milton Heritage Society gave a presentation on two tours which he organises - one covering the battlefields of WW1 and the other covering the Normandy Landings. Both sounded extremely interesting and worth-while - an opportunity not to be missed. The tours (three days/two nights) run from early Spring to the Autumn, preferably for groups of 8 or 16. Anyone wishing to learn more and perhaps book ahead should please contact Nick on 618549 or email nick@miltonheritagesociety.co.uk.

Last month we sent out a call for volunteers to assist with this year's Poppy Appeal. Now, due to an unexpected loss from the team, we are seeking one or two people to join the small committee. Not onerous - very occasional meetings during the year to catch up and maybe give a helping hand with social events. All to "spread the load" among our loyal supporters. If you feel this might be of interest do call Chairman Ron Back on 6290266 or myself.

Glo

DON'T ASK!

"Are you ready for Christmas?"
The question we all dread
Mainly asked by someone
Whose own plans are well ahead
This woman makes me anxious
For her sanctimonious smile
Hints that I'm half-witted

And devoid of sense and style
She looks at me with pity
Says "It isn't long to go -
You've got to get a move on"
Yes I know, I know, I know!
Her turkey's in the freezer
My heart's beating with alarm
Mine's still sporting feathers
And strutting round some farm
Her cards have all been written
That's still something I must buy
I panic every Christmas
My plans all go awry
I know that, without asking,
All her gifts are neatly wrapped
I've still got to trudge around
Ideas and purse both zapped
She's the kind of person who
When her lights go up, they light!
Mine stay tangled in their box
A useless, sorry sight
On Christmas Eve I bet that she'll
Be busy in her kitchen
While I'll be scouring the shops
Just like a headless chicken
I really must get started
I'm behind with every task
Am I ready yet for Christmas?
Not a chance, so please don't ask!

BLACKMAIL!

Little Daniel tells his mother he wants a red bike for Christmas. She says he really hasn't been very good lately but if he cleans up his room and keeps it tidy his prayers might be answered. So he starts to tidy up but soon gets bored and, instead, begins his prayers saying "I'm a good boy really" - decides that's not quite good enough and starts again with "Jesus, I do try but, after all, I'm only what you made me". Still not sure he's made the right impression he thinks for a few minutes and then goes to his parents' room where there is a small statue of the Virgin Mary. He takes it back to his bedroom, carefully wraps it up and puts it in a box under the bed. Then he starts to pray again, saying "Jesus - if you want to see your mother again....."
